

Risk 101

Course Description:

Every day project performance is threatened by risks, the ability to manage risk is key to the success of any project or organization. This course will introduce participant to the methodology involved in identifying, categorizing, mitigating, monitoring and responding to risks. Learners will learn about the relationship between risks and contingency funds and will walk away with tools to develop a risk management plan as well as the knowledge needed to identify risk mitigation and response strategies.

Course Learning Outcomes:

Upon the completion of the course, you will be able to:

- Understand the importance of risk management
- Be able to divide risks into in the their respective risks and categories
- Distinguish between risk symptoms and root causes
- Understand best practices of identifying risks
- Apply probability and impact as ways to identify risk severity
- Identify risk values and develop a budget risk reserve
- Understand risk mitigation and response strategies
- Identify methods of controlling and reassessing risks

Duration:

1 day (7 hours)

Registration:

The length and content of all Tarka Consulting Inc. courses may be tailored to your organization's unique needs. To register, please call:

Tarka Consulting Inc.
403-402-1651
emil@tarkaconsulting.ca
www.tarkaconsulting.ca